Equipment: Small Buckets, Large Colored Spots, Soccer balls, Hula Hoops, Team Lines

Set Up: (see diagram below)

Execution:

- Break players into 4-even teams. Assign each team to a superhero line.
- Put all 24 Infinite stones (colored spots) down in the middle of the court (randomly) and put a bucket over each stone. (If you don't have enough Buckets, you can also do Cones over Small Colored Spots.)
- Review Storyline – The Spots are the Infinite Stones. The first Avenger to collect all 6-infinite stones and return them to their hula hoop is the winner
- Round 2 – Soccer Dribbling. Person at the end of the line (furthest from the goal), starts on the starting x/spot with the soccer ball. On coach's whistle, he/she dribbles to one of the buckets and flips it over.
 - If they don't already have that color infinite stone: They grab the stone, leave the bucket flipped over, and dribble back to their Hula Hoop. Drop the stone in the hoop and pass the ball to the next player in line.
 - If they already have that color infinite stone: They stand-up the bucket so it covers the stone, and dribble back to their team line, and pass the ball to the next person in line (on the starting x/spot) They only get to look under 1-Bucket each attempt.
- Continue until 1-team has collected all 6-infinite stones and award points. The winning teams gets 6-points. All other teams get 1-point for each stone they had in their Hula Hoop when time expired.
- Move onto Round 3 – Soccer Passing

Comments: This is similar to the game of memory. Players have to work together and communicate. If you look under a bucket and found the an Infinite stone you couldn't collect, make sure you communicate it to your teammates so they don't make the same mistake.
